A grant of Probate which is an official court document stating that the Will is legally valid and the named Executor of the Will has the authority to administer the estate.

If there is no Will, you will need to supply Letters of Administration. This is an official court document appointing an Administrator, who is charged with the administration of the Estate of the deceased, similar to an executor.

If you do not have Letters of Administration, you will need to supply the FULL NAME and ADDRESS of the deceased's Next of Kin. The Next of Kin is usually the surviving spouse. If there is no spouse, then the children of the deceased. If no children, then the parents of the deceased.

An Executor is the person(s) responsible for carrying out the terms of the Will. If there is more than one Executor please select one address as Link can only accept one address for the Executor.

Who is to receive the Securities?

You have two options, Transmission or Transfer.

Transmission: The transmission of securities is changing the name under which the securities are registered from the deceased's name into the name of the executor/administrator to be then distributed to the beneficiaries of the estate.

Transfer: Securities can be transferred directly from the name of the deceased into the name of a beneficiary, beneficiaries or other persons.

Please note that if the executor is also the beneficiary, the movement of securities from the deceased's name to the name of the beneficiary should be by way of TRANSFER and not Transmission.

5 Option to Transmit or Transfer Securities
